A Triple-A-rated Alternative to U.S. Treasuries

Unlocking Value for U.S. Dollar Investors

As a triple-A supranational issuer, IFC bonds offer value as an alternative to US agency debt, with the potential to offer more attractive yields than U.S. Treasuries.

The U.S. dollar market was IFC's largest source of funding in FY24, accounting for 44% of total volume. We issue in several formats in the U.S. dollar market, including public benchmark bonds, medium-term notes (MTNs), and retail notes in tenors ranging from 1 to 30 years.

IFC is a regular issuer of U.S. dollar benchmark bonds, entering the market at least once per year since 2000 with trades typically ranging between $1 and $2 billion. As of FY24 end, IFC had eight U.S. dollar global benchmark bonds outstanding, totaling $13.7 billion. IFC also issues U.S. dollar SOFR floating rate notes (FRN). As of FY24 end, IFC had one SOFR FRN outstanding, which had grown to $1 billion through multiple reopenings (taps).

MTNs are usually executed on a reverse inquiry basis and can be issued in various structures, including fixed or zero coupon bullets and callable bonds. They represented 35% of IFC's total U.S. dollar issuance in FY24.

Notes issued by IFC are exempt from SEC registration.

The stable outlook reflects S&P Global Ratings' expectation that IFC will maintain high capital, strong liquidity, and robust risk management policies. We expect IFC will continue to deliver on its mandate as its operational and financial model overhaul in recent years positions it to further mobilize higher levels of private-sector investment and play a central role in the One World Bank strategy to end extreme poverty and boost shared prosperity on a livable planet.
